Christophe Perrot-Minot, a former courtier (a broker who serves as middleman between growers and negociants), now succeeds his parents as grower/winemaker at this family domaine established in 1963. With 20 acres under vines, Domaine Perrot-Minot makes 18 estate-grown wines including nine premier cru and two grand cru bottlings. Thirteen of the domaine's bottlings carry the descriptor "Vieilles Vignes" as they are made from vines that are at least 45 years old! As a firm believer in noninterventionist winemaking, Christophe uses no chemical fertilizers, employs a green harvest to bear only six to seven bunches per vine, and both harvests and sorts by hand. Each wine receives 30%-60% new oak (depending on its cru status), ages for 14-18 months and is bottled without fining or filtration.

750 ml	Chambertin Grand Cru	2010	498
375 ml	Chambertin Grand Cru	2010	283
This is restrained and brooding to the point where it is essentially mute as even aggressive swirling coaxes almost nothing except the impression that the underlying fruit is ripe. This is one big-bodied, concentrated and ultra-serious effort with a cool minerality characterizing the powerful and velvet textured flavors that culminate in a sappy, austere and mineral-inflected finish that displays plenty of the hallmark austerity of a very young Chambertin. Despite the almost extreme reserve, the underlying material is present that should allow this to develop beautifully over the next 15 years or so.
Allen Meadows: 93-96
750 ml	Chambertin Clos De Bèze Grand Cru	2010	488
Reduction knocks the nose down though again, it seems reasonably clear that the underlying fruit is ripe. The is excellent size, weight and volume to the impressively concentrated large-scaled flavors that also possess plenty of supporting dry extract, all of which is underpinned by notably firm but ripe tannins as well as plenty of that appealing tension that adds lift to the linear and energetic finish. This will also require ample patience.

750 ml	Chapelle Chambertin Grand Cru	2010	343
375 ml	Chapelle Chambertin Grand Cru	2010	176
A cool, complex and refined nose juxtaposes notes of plum, dark berry fruit, earth and underbrush before sliding gracefully into intensely mineral-inflected medium weight flavors that possess ripe tannins and outstanding length. This is a wonderfully and almost painfully intense wine where the natural minerality of En Gémeaux is very much front and center in terms of defining its character. In short, this is a balanced and very impressive effort that should also require 12 to 15 years of cellar time to realize all of its remarkable potential.

750 ml	Chambolle Musigny Les Fuees 1er Cru	2010	199
Mild reduction hides the composition of the nose but it's clear that the underlying fruit is ripe. There is an appealing richness to the round and attractively refined and pure medium weight flavors that evidence plenty of the hallmark minerality of a fine Fuées, all wrapped in a serious, velvety and palate coating finish.

375 ml	Chambolle Musigny Les Echanges 1 <sup>er</sup> Cru	2010	105
Pretty purple fruit and violet aromas give way to attractively detailed and tender middle weight flavors that possess a silky mouth feel before terminating in a delicate and lacy finish. The exceptionally fine tannins contribute to this sense of delicacy and this should be approachable young.
750 ml	Nuits Saint Georges ULTRA 1 <sup>er</sup> Cru La Richemone	2010	292
This is also sufficiently reduced to render the nose impossible to fairly assess. This is indisputably richer and riper than the regular cuvée with its velvety, powerful and broad-shouldered flavors that display an abundance of dry extract that buffers the notably firm tannins before terminating in a velvety and mouth coating finish. This is a big but not inelegant effort that will need 12 to 15 years to be at its best.
Allen Meadows: 92-94
750 ml	Nuits Saint Georges 1 <sup>er</sup> Cru La Richemone	2010	199
375 ml	Nuits Saint Georges 1 <sup>er</sup> Cru La Richemone	2010	105
Moderate reduction impairs an evaluation of the nose but there is plenty of verve to the silky and attractively fine flavors where once again the impression of finesse is abetted considerably by the ultra-fine tannins though there is a touch of Nuits muscle that shows up on the powerful and notably firm finish. This is also very impressive.

375 ml	Vosne Romanee Les Beaux Monts 1 <sup>er</sup> Cru	2010	105
A refined, pure and expressive nose exudes subtle spice notes on the otherwise ripe and airy plum and floral suffused aromas. There is good extract to the rich, delicious and seductively textured, even opulent flavors on the balanced and reasonably persistent finish.

375 ml	Gevrey Chambertin 1 <sup>er</sup> Cru Les perrieres	2010	98
There is enough reduction present to dominate the nose but there is excellent freshness and verve to the intensely mineral-driven, delicious and voluminous medium-bodied flavors that exude plenty of tannin-buffering extract. This not only possesses outstanding depth but seriously impressive persistence as well. Lovely and impeccably well-balanced juice that should amply repay up to 10 years of cellar time.

750 ml	Charmes Chambertin Grand Cru	2010	349
A brooding and intensely earthy nose features notes of dark berries, plum, smoked tea and a hint of animale that is also reflected by the focused and beautifully intense medium-bodied flavors that possess an unusually refined mouth feel. There is muscle here but essentially this is a Charmes of refinement though the hugely long finish is explosive.
Allen Meadows: 92-94
750 ml	Mazoyeres Chambertin Grand Cru	2010	368
375 ml	Mazoyeres Chambertin Grand Cru	2010	198
This is also intensely earthy and while not as elegant it is just as complex with a well-layered mix of both red and dark berry fruit where the animale character of a classic Gevrey is front and center. There is outstanding intensity to the very rich and palate coating large-scaled flavors that possess excellent depth of material and while the strikingly long finish is quite firmly structured there is nothing aggressive or astringent about it. A powerful and altogether classic example of the appellation.
Allen Meadows: 92-94
750 ml	Chambolle Musigny 1er Cru La Combe D'Orveau Cuvee Ultra	2010	305
This possesses one of the most complex noses of the entire range with a broad array of aromas that include notes of ripe plum, red currant, cassis and wet stone. There is superb richness to the intense, concentrated and palate coating flavors that possess outstanding length. It's clear that the underlying tannins enjoy excellent phenolic maturity and as it usually is, this is most impressive.
Allen Meadows: 91-94
750 ml	Chambolle Musigny 1er Cru La Combe D'Orveau	2010	283
A restrained, even shy nose of very fresh, airy and cool red pinot fruit, plum and stone aromas leads to attractively rich, round and wonderfully pure essence of pinot flavors that are delicious while exhibiting plenty of underlying tension. The supporting tannins are ultra-fine and the overall impression of this stylish effort is one of class and grace.

750 ml	Morey Saint Denis 1 <sup>er</sup> Cru La Riotte	2010	146
375 ml	Morey Saint Denis 1 <sup>er</sup> Cru La Riotte	2010	78
Mild reduction impairs an assessment of the nose but there is excellent volume to the palate caressing medium weight flavors that terminate in a naturally sweet, balanced and tension-filled finish. There is really lovely balance here as there is good poise to the harmonious palate impression. Worth a look.
Allen Meadows: 90-92
750 ml	Gevrey Chambertin	2010	98
n elegant, fresh and admirably pure nose of cool dark berry fruit aromas tinged with subtle earth and humus notes leads to refined and silky middle weight flavors that terminate in a supple, understand and delicious finish of reasonably good depth and length.
Allen Meadows: 86-89
750 ml	Morey Saint Denis En La Rue De Vergy	2010	98
This is more elegant and even cooler with exceptionally fresh and bright mineral-inflected red berry fruit aromas that display soft undertones of cassis. The delineation is impressive and the freshness of the nose is reinforced by the almost palpable sense of energy on the pure flavors that are shaped by extremely fine tannins and good length. The depth is only average but this is a very pretty and harmonious effort.
