2019 VINTAGE REPORT

2019 was a unique and very changeable year. It brought its own stresses for a great many producers, while harvesting passed without a hitch. The end result has inspired enthusiasm amongst winemakers, surpassing expectations. The weather was hot and dry, but the wines are promising a freshness that will delight fans of Bourgogne wines, with an indulgent side to boot. Despite the hot summer, the wines are full of freshness, the millerandage has brought lots of vivacity and the wines are fruity, indulgent, balanced and lively.

Since the start of the 20th century, every vintage that has ended with a “9” has been wonderful. The only downside to this one is below-average volumes (1,23 million hectolitres).

- Vins De Bourgogne

Another great vintage ending in ‘9’ that was hot and very dry yet produced ripe, fresh, concentrated and very high-quality wines. The 2019s belong in any serious Burgundy collector’s cellar; indeed I believe that it would be a significant mistake to pass on them. It can sometimes be reproached by having a bit too much alcohol and thus imparting noticeable warmth to the finishes.

A few wines, though again far fewer than in 2018, possess tannins that are somewhat green and edgy due to the drought-induced hydric stress. Often these wines have some degree of underripe tannins that cause the texture of the wines to be raspy and drying. Otherwise, there really isn’t a lot to be concerned about, which is why I have observed that 2019 is definitely more consistent than 2018.

Regarding longevity, the 2019s have excellent potential if perhaps not quite in the same league as say the finest 2005s, 2010s or 2018s. With respect to other vintages that 2019 might reasonably resemble, growers nominated relatively few unique vintages, meaning a direct comparison with only one. But I would go with half 2009 and half 2010, as 2019 offers the richness and generosity of the former with the finesse, punch and gorgeous terroir definition of the latter. In terms of style, refinement and completeness, makes the 2019s.

- Allen Meadows, Burghound

In 2019, Burgundy has an excellent amplifier. It amplified all facets of both white and red grapes instead of just the sugar and alcohol, somehow, it concentrated acidity.

The 2019 whites are not “tropical” in the sense of a hot Mediterranean climate. There is depth but not heaviness, few fat or buttery wines. The tropical notes are not in your face, hence my frequent use of moderating descriptors like “subtle” or “glimpses” of passion fruit, apricot, white peaches, yellow plum and nectarine. They don’t have the nerve of the benchmark 2017s though like the 2018 whites, they defy preconceptions, especially in terms of crucial salinity. They unexpectedly offer freshness and richness that were once thought to be mutually exclusive.

The reds are highly perfumed with accentuated floral characteristics are often utterly seductive. The aromatics are delineated and focused: black cherries, wild strawberry, orange zest and blood orange, occasionally cassis on riper Pinot Noirs, violet and iris petals, more rose petals in Chambolle-Musigny and Gevrey, often with an underlying earthiness

It is remarkable, almost irrational, how the finest 2019s maintain detail, clarity and tension and sapid finishes, their acidic nerve underpins the success of 2019. These are vivid and bright wines, shiny as a new button. The fruit is often intense but rarely overblown or marred by overripe characteristics like prune or raisin, as grape skins were not too thick. The 2019s reds will be more approachable, yet they have the balance and substance to repay cellaring.

REDS
Bonnes Mares Grand Cru		93-96	94-96	Releasing Soon
Burghound Score: 93-96	Discreet wood frames the relatively high-toned aromas of various red berries along with a plentitude of floral and spice wisps. There is outstanding power and mouth coating dry extract present on the broad-shouldered flavors that deliver superb depth and flat out remarkable length. This beauty is however quite firmly structured so ample patience is strongly suggested. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
Vinous Score: 94-96	The 2019 Bonnes-Mares Grand Cru has a rich and generous bouquet with blueberry and black cherry aromas, the most extravagant of Bruno Clair's wines this year. The palate is medium-bodied with fine grain tannins, very poised and focused with a mineral-driven finish that lingers in the mouth. Lovely strictness on the finish counterbalances the precocity on the nose. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com
Chambertin-Clos de Bèze Grand Cru		92-95	93-95	Releasing Soon
Burghound Score: 92-95	Even spicier liqueur-like aromas of plum, violet and earth are present on the cool and beautifully layered nose. There is very fine volume, power, richness and concentration to the powerful big-bodied flavors that coat the palate with sappy dry extract while delivering outstanding length on the complex, balanced and robust finale. This youthfully austere effort is packed with development potential and should also age effortlessly. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
Vinous Score: 93-95	The 2019 Chambertin Clos-de-Bèze Grand Cru, populated by ancient vines planted in 1912, suffered a lot of millerandé berries. The bouquet is very well defined with white pepper and tea leaf infusing the mineral-rich black fruit. The palate is medium-bodied with supple tannins, very harmonious and smooth in texture, perhaps just needing a little more depth and grip to come through on the finish. Wonderful. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com
Gevrey-Chambertin 1er Cru "Clos St. Jacques"		92-94	93-95	Releasing Soon
Burghound Score: 92-94	Exceptionally pretty and markedly cool aromas waft from the glass to reveal attractively spicy notes of various dark berries, violet and soft sauvage nuances. There is both good volume and mid-palate density to the overtly mineral-driven middle weight flavors that culminate in a super-sleek, precise and wonderfully long finale. This is at once succulent but serious and should age effortlessly. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
Vinous Score: 93-95	The 2019 Gevrey-Chambertin Clos Saint-Jacques 1er Cru is very complex on the nose with mostly red fruit intermingling with crushed stone, black truffle and light cedar aromas. It feels very assured. The palate is medium-bodied with fine grain but quite firm tannins, complex with fine acidity and hints of marmalade and clove tincturing the red fruit towards the finish. Superb - but will it surpass the 2018? -Neal Martin, Vinous.com
Gevrey-Chambertin 1er Cru "Les Cazetiers"		91-94	92-94	Releasing Soon
Burghound Score: 91-94	A much earthier and less elegant but even more complex nose displays notes of the sauvage, red and dark berries, newly turned earth, humus and a hint of exotic tea. There is excellent size, weight and punch to the tautly muscular bigger-bodied flavors that possess a bracing salinity on the impressively long finale. This is textbook Cazetiers and built-to-age. Patience advised. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com

Vinous Score: 92-94	The 2019 Gevrey-Chambertin Les Cazetiers 1er Cru, which apparently suffered a lot of millerandage, shows a little reduction on the nose, but it clearly possesses fine mineralité underneath with flinty/granitic aromas percolating through. The palate is very well balanced with succulent ripe tannins, fleshy and very elegant with black pepper towards the finish. Excellent. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com
Gevrey-Chambertin 1er Cru "Clos des Fonteny"		90-92	92-94	Releasing Soon
Burghound Score: 90-92	A more elegant and equally airy if much more floral nose features aromas of essence of red currant, spice and a whiff of anise. There is very good energy to the focused, intense and nicely precise flavors that flash good minerality on the moderately austere and dusty finale. As is usually the case with this tightly wound wine, it's going to need close to a decade to really open. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
Vinous Score: 92-94	The 2019 Gevrey-Chambertin Clos du Fonteny 1er Cru, a monopole of 0.67 hectares, has a tightly wound bouquet that opens with aeration: brambly red fruit mixed with light loamy and woodland scents. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannins, very mineral-driven with an almost flinty, stern and strict just like a Ruchottes on the finish. Excellent, but one for serious Burgophiles. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com
Gevrey-Chambertin 1er Cru "Petite Chapelle"		90-93	91-93	Releasing Soon
Burghound Score: 90-93	An elegant, pure and layered blend is composed mostly of cool red berries, rose petal and spice trimmed in an all-but-invisible application of wood. There is a lovely sense of underlying tension suffusing the succulent middle weight flavors that exude a subtle minerality onto the dusty, balanced and solidly persistent finish. This needs to develop better depth, but the material is present for that to eventually occur. Lovely. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
Vinous Score: 91-93	The 2019 Gevrey-Chambertin Petite Chapelle 1er Cru is the smallest cuvée of the domaine, just 4 or 5 barrels each year. It has fine focus and intensity with blackberry, briary and freshly tilled soil. The palate is medium-bodied with grainy tannins, crisp and fresh with a crunchy textured, edgy finish. Elegant and full of tension, it should drink well for 12 to 15 years. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com
Marsannay "Les Grasses Têtes"		90-92	89-91	Releasing Soon
Burghound Score: 90-92	Much like the Vaudenelles, the nose is exceptionally fresh and bright with its very floral-infused nose of mostly red berries and earth. There is terrific intensity to the relatively big-bodied and markedly firm flavors that culminate in a more structured, more complex and longer finish. This is also well-made and should reward up to a decade of cellaring. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
Vinous Score: 89-91	The 2019 Marsannay Les Grasses Têtes has a perfumed bouquet with red cherries, raspberry and wilted rose petals, nicely focused. The palate is medium-bodied with candied red fruit mixed with cassis and touches of vanilla towards the finish. Something joyful about this cuvée this year. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com
Marsannay "Les Longeroies"		90-92	85-87	Releasing Soon
Burghound Score: 90-92	Once again there is a lovely freshness to the cool and pure aromas of red currant, anise, violet and soft earth scents. The wonderfully sleek, intense and delineated middle weight flavors brim with minerality that also suffuses the youthfully austere and built-to-age finish. This is going to need at least some patience and it should be well-worth the wait. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com

Vinous Score: 85-87	The 2019 Marsannay Les Longeroies is one cuvée that shows a bit of sour maturity on the nose. The palate is sweet and ripe with black cherries and blueberry fruit, silky smooth but just missing a little delineation towards the finish. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com
Gevrey-Chambertin		89-91	88-90	Releasing Soon
Burghound Score: 89-91	Once again strong reduction dominates the underlying fruit. The succulent and round, indeed even fleshy and plump, tighten up somewhat on the moderately austere and focused finale. I like the complexity and more should develop with a few years of cellaring. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
Vinous Score: 88-90	The 2019 Gevrey-Chambertin Village, from three lieux-dits, has a strict, rather backward nose that refused to "come out and play". The palate is medium-bodied with crunchy black fruit, a nice touch of bitterness on the finish. It will need a year in bottle before it begins to entertain drinkability. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com
Savigny-lès-Beaune 1er Cru "La Dominode"		89-91	89-91	Releasing Soon
Burghound Score: 89-91	A notably ripe nose offers up notes of poached plum, cassis, spice and prominent earth scents. The round, delicious and very rich medium-bodied flavors are bigger but not as vibrant while exhibiting fine depth and persistence on the firm and equally warm finale. This seems to lack the same energy as the best in the range though that may change with time in bottle. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
Vinous Score: 89-91	The 2019 Savigny-lès-Beaune La Dominode 1er Cru is earthy but nicely focused on the nose. The palate is sweet on the entry with blood orange tincturing the red fruit, well balanced with a touch of orange zest and marmalade towards the finish. Very fine. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com
Vosne-Romanée "Champs Perdrix"		89-91	91-93	Releasing Soon
Burghound Score: 89-91	Discreet but not invisible wood frames the much spicier aromas of both red and dark berry fruit along with a pretty array of floral nuances and in particular violet. The elevation of the vineyard shows as there is very good vibrancy to the beautifully well-detailed and intense flavors that conclude in a youthfully austere, complex, long and linear finish. This is quite firmly structured, and it will be necessary to wait for 10 to 12 years if you wish to see this beauty of a Vosne villages at its peak. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
Vinous Score: 91-93	The 2019 Vosne-Romanée Champs Perdrix has a vibrant bouquet with red cherries and blackcurrant aromas, stained with violet petals. The palate is very harmonious with granular tannins, graphite tinged red fruit with impressive clarity on the finish. Good potential. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com
Chambolle-Musigny "Les Véroilles"		88-91	89-91	Releasing Soon
Burghound Score: 88-91	Notes of wood and reduction are all that can be discerned at present. More interesting are the finer if less concentrated flavors that flash excellent minerality on the delicate, refined and youthfully austere finale. This is notably ripe yet there is enough vibrancy that there is no heaviness. I would add that Les Véroilles is a vineyard that does not do as well in very dry vintages, which was the case in 2019, and while this is perfectly good, it is perhaps not at its usual excellent level. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com

Vinous Score: 89-91	The 2019 Chambolles-Musigny Les Verailles has a perfumed bouquet with strawberry and cranberry, touches of ash and embers emerging with time. The palate is well balanced with a fine bead of acidity, fresh and focused, elegant in style with a poised finish. Probably one of the Domaine earlier drinking cuvées and very winsome. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com
Burghound Score: 88-91	Elegant and airy floral wisps are present on the nicely spicy and bright aromas of various red berries, plum and soft wood influence. The round, delicious and attractively textured flavors also brim with minerality that adds a sense of lift to the sneaky long finish. This could use more depth so a few years of cellaring should be beneficial. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
Vinous Score: 90-92	The 2019 Morey Saint-Denis En La Rue Vergy offers a mixture of red/black fruit on the nose, touches of singed earth and sous-bois developing with time. The palate is very harmonious and smooth with beautifully integrated oak. Sumptuous dark cherry fruit mixed with orange zest and blueberry, very silky towards the elegant finish. Superb. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com

DOMAINE CLAUDE DUGAT (GEVREY CHAMBERTIN)		BURGHOUND	VINOUS	PRICE	QTY
Bourgogne		86-89	86-88	Releasing Soon
Burghound Score: 86-89	An earthy and exceptionally fresh nose speaks mostly of red pinot fruit scents. There is excellent energy to the beguilingly delicious middle weight flavors that possess touches of earth and rustic along with fine depth and persistence for a regional wine. Worth checking out plus it should repay a few years of cellaring. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
Vinous Score: 86-88	The 2019 Bourgogne Rouge has a bright nose of morello cherry and crushed strawberry scents that leap from the glass. The palate is well balanced with crunchy red fruit, a liberal dash of white pepper and a harmonious, well-defined finish. Delicious. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com
Burghound Score: 88-91	There is just enough wood lurking in the background of the equally fresh red berry, sauvage and earth-scented aromas to comment on. There is fine richness and outstanding punch to the concentrated and moderately serious flavors that culminate in a youthfully austere and sneaky long finale. This balanced effort should age well and if it can add depth, it should merit the upper portion of my projected range. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
Vinous Score: 89-91	The 2019 Gevrey-Chambertin Village, raised in 40% new oak, has a very pure and charming bouquet, the pure black cherries commingling with raspberry and subtle floral scents. The palate is well balanced with crunchy red berry fruit and a pinch of white pepper. This is a little compact at the moment, yet there is wonderful precision from start to finish. Excellent. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com
Gevrey Chambertin 1er Cru		90-93	92-94	Releasing Soon
Burghound Score: 90-93	This too is sufficiently reduced to render the nose difficult to read. More interesting are the sleek, intense and finer medium-bodied flavors that flash more evident minerality on the intense, powerful and chiseled finale. This too will require at least moderate patience. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
Vinous Score: 92-94	The 2019 Gevrey-Chambertin 1er Cru is generous on the nose, peony and incense complementing the vibrant red fruit and a hint of cassis emerging with time. There is something joyful about these aromatics. The palate is medium-bodied with very supple, saturated tannins that lend this a fleshier, slightly more corpulent body than the Village Cru. It fans out nicely toward the flinty finish, and pure dark fruit lingers on the aftertaste. This is very promising. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com

Bourgogne 'Gravieres des Chaponnieres'		87-89		$77
Burghound Score: 87-89	An agreeably fresh nose features notes of both red and blue pinot fruit along with pretty spice and soft earth nuances. There is excellent volume and mid-palate density in the context of what is typical for the genre to the delicious flavors, all wrapped in a lingering and complex finish that exhibits only a hint of rusticity. This is a very fine Bourgogne and worth checking out. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
Vinous Score:
Chambolle Musigny 'Orveaux des Bussières Vieilles Vignes'		89-91	90-92	$232
Burghound Score: 89-91	A ripe, spicy and alluringly elegant nose offers up notes of plum, violet and discreet spice nuances, especially anise and clove. The racy, intense and utterly delicious middle weight flavors possess a plush mid-palate while displaying fine persistence on the saline-inflected finale where the only nit is a hint of warmth. This relatively forward effort should drink well shortly after release. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
Vinous Score: 90-92	The 2019 Chambolle-Musigny Vieilles Vignes comes from two parcels in La Bussières and En Orveau. It has a vibrant cassis-tinged bouquet with lovely floral scents lending it a Vosne-like personality. The palate is medium-bodied with sappy black fruit, fine acidity with good tension on the finish, a tang of marmalade on the aftertaste. Very fine. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com
Burghound Score: 89-92	Once again there is enough reduction to mask the nuances of the underlying fruit. Otherwise there is very good freshness and verve to the equally racy and intense flavors that possess a lovely tension that carries over to the linear, refined and chiseled finish that is shaped by relatively fine-grained tannins. This is a very fine Gevrey villages that should also be approachable young. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
Vinous Score: 89-91	The 2019 Gevrey-Chambertin Village comes from La Justice des Sévrées was much more closed on the nose compared to the Chambolle-Musigny. The palate is silky smooth on the entry, vibrant red cherry and kirsch, touches of orange rind, a little sinew on the finish but it should develop more finesse by the time of bottling and will deserve 24-36 months in bottle. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com
Morey Saint Denis 'En La Rue de Vergy'		88-90	90-92	$200
Burghound Score: 88-90	This too is attractively fresh and bright with its aromas of essence of red berries, spice and a lovely floral whiff. The rich and seductively opulent middle weight flavors exude a subtle salinity on the focused, balanced and lingering finish. While this will reward a few years of cellaring, it could easily be enjoyed early on if that's your preference. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com

Vinous Score: 90-92	The 2019 Morey-Saint-Denis en la Rue de Vergy has a lovely, almost caressing bouquet of very pure dark cherry and boysenberry fruit laced with vanilla. The palate is well balanced with fine tannins, a keen thread of acidity and an understated yet persistent finish. This is a lovely entry-level wine amongst Christophe Perrot-Minot's range. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com
Burghound Score: 90-93	An exuberantly spicy nose is comprised by notes of poached plum, violet, lavender and a suggestion of warm earth. There is once again a lovely sense of underlying tension to the medium-bodied flavors that possess a caressing palate impression before firming up on the sneaky long and balanced finale. This could also use better depth, but it has the density and tannic structure to allow this to happen. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
Vinous Score: 90-92	The 2019 Morey-Saint-Denis La Riotte 1er Cru has an intense, floral bouquet with macerated red cherries, Seville orange marmalade and iodine aromas that burst from the glass. The palate is medium-bodied with supple tannins, dark cherries mixed with cassis and orange rind leading to a finish that exerts a gentle grip. This should evolve into a fine La Riotte. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com
Burghound Score: 92-95	Here too there is a whiff of herbal tea to the more floral-infused and even more restrained aromas of cool, pure and elegant red cherry, spice and rose petal. The medium weight flavors also possess a positively gorgeous mouthfeel and while they don't possess quite the same level of complexity, the strikingly long finish is even finer. This too is terrific and offers much to like. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
Vinous Score: 91-93	The 2019 Chambolle-Musigny La Combe d'Orveau "Cuvée Ultra" has a more savory bouquet that Christophe Perrot-Minot's other cuvées, the stem addition needing more time to be fully subsumed into the fruit. Forest floor and touches of game filter through. The palate is medium-bodied with supple tannins, much more ferrous in style compared to the La Richemone that preceded it, with maybe just a little more austerity and grip on the finish. This will need time. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com
Burghound Score: 92-95	Moderate reduction mostly overshadows the ripe and earthy dark berry fruit aromas. By contrast there is very good freshness, outstanding intensity and concentration to the big-bodied, powerful and serious flavors that deliver superb length on the emphatically structured finale where the only nit is a hint of warmth. This promising and built-to-age effort is a big but still relatively refined wine that is less youthfully austere than normal. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
Vinous Score: 92-94	The 2019 Charmes-Chambertin Vieilles Vignes Grand Cru, which comes from Perrot-Minot's own vineyard, is a bit sullen on the nose compared to the Griottes. It never quite obtains the same amplitude, feels a little timid, a Charmes that doesn't charm at the moment probably due to a bit of reduction. The palate is medium-bodied with very supple, rounded tannins. The concentration is loaded on the back end of this Charmes though I feel that the Griottes has more delineation and nerve. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com

Burghound Score: 92-94	This is also agreeably fresh while displaying a bit more earth character on the ultra-spicy and very pretty mix of poached plum and red and dark berries, especially cherry. There is once again a lovely texture to the sappy, delicious and succulent broad-shouldered flavors that possess a fleshy mouthfeel, all wrapped in a lingering if slightly warm and youthfully austere finale. This is not as dense as the best of these grands crus, but I like the sense of harmony and overall complexity. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
Vinous Score: 94-96	The 2019 Mazoyères-Chambertin Vieilles Vignes Grand Cru has a really classy bouquet, perhaps more traditional in style compared to Perrot-Minot's other Grand Crus, earthier with more sous-bois scents, but just as intense. The palate is medium-bodied with succulent, corpulent tannins that render this a very voluminous and mouth-filling Mazoyères. Maybe the Chapelle-Chambertin has more nervosité, though this boasts and extremely long aftertaste and a persuasive sense of grandeur. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com
Burghound Score: 90-92	This too is aromatically somewhat reduced though soft spice wisps do escape the funk. As one would naturally expect given the substantial difference in elevation, there is more tension and freshness to the racy and beautifully detailed medium weight flavors that brim with an intense minerality before concluding in a more complex, chiseled and lingering finale. This moderately firm effort is excellent and also worth your interest. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
Vinous Score: 88-90	The 2019 Vosne-Romanée Les Champs Perdrix Vieilles Vignes, which comes from 50-year old vines, has an overtly floral bouquet with pressed violet and iris petals. The palate is medium-bodied with succulent tannins, rounded in texture with impressive volume, though I would like more tension to develop on the finish that needs to "kick on" a little more. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com
Burghound Score: 89-92	Here the nose is mildly reduced yet the underlying fruit seems ripe. There is very good freshness to the more voluminous if less saline flavors that possess excellent balance and length though it does need to add more depth with time in bottle. This is a very fine villages and worthy of your consideration. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
Vinous Score: 89-91	The 2019 Vosne-Romanées Ormes des Chalandins, a blend of the two titular vineyards, has an intense bouquet with dark berry fruit mixed with loamy, slightly truffle aromas. The palate is medium-bodied with a sweet entry, very supple and quite grippy tannins with a tangy marmalade tinged finish. There is a lot going on here. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com
Burghound Score: 91-93	A cool, pure and elegant nose exhibits aromas of black cherry, poached plum and a variety of spice elements that are trimmed in wisps of wood and warm earth. The sleek, intense and very punchy medium weight flavors flash evident minerality on the focused and solidly powerful finish that is also shaped by firm by fine-grained tannins. This is robust and serious but not rustic and should age accordingly. Worth checking out. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com

Vinous Score: 90-92	The 2019 Nuits Saint-Georges Les Murgers des Cras has an intense floral bouquet with bunches of violets almost occluding the dark cherries and boysenberry scents. Opulent, but controlled. The palate is medium-bodied with juicy ripe tannins, grainy in texture with an edgy, blood orange infused finish that lingers long in the mouth. Just some new oak to be absorbed right on the finish but that will be done by the time of bottling. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com
Burghound Score: 92-95	A ripe yet appealingly fresh and decidedly cool herbal tea-inflected nose blends together liqueur-like red and dark currant aromas with those of earth and floral nuances. There is outstanding richness to the full-bodied, powerful and mineral-driven middle weight flavors that possess a highly sophisticated texture while brimming with dry extract before terminating in a long, youthfully austere and well-balanced finale that is again shaped by dense but fine-grained tannins. This is terrific and I really like the mouthfeel. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
Vinous Score: 94-96	The 2019 Nuit-Saint-Georges La Richemone Vieilles Vignes "Cuvée Ultra" has a very intense bouquet that threatens to overwhelm the sense: black cherries, boysenberry, violet with hints of sage and orange rind. The palate is medium-bodied with supple tannins that caress the sense, very Vosne-like in style with a satin-textured and very luxurious finish. This will be impossible to resist in its youth so don't say I didn't warn you. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com
Burghound Score: 90-93	A more deeply pitched, and more expressive, nose is comprised by wonderfully spicy notes of black cherry, plum liqueur and violet. The delicious, refined and intense flavors brim with minerality and the same beguiling tension that renders the balanced, lingering and youthfully austere finish wonderfully refreshing. This needs to add depth, but the extended aging horizon should allow that to gradually occur in time. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
Vinous Score: 93-95	The 2019 Vosne-Romanée Les Beaux Monts Vieilles Vignes 1er Cru has a clean, precise bouquet with bunches of crushed violet filtered through the black cherry and blueberry fruit. The palate is very elegant on the entry, velvety in texture with a precocious yet controlled finish of blood orange infused dark cherry and cassis fruit. This is very harmonious and will be dangerously seductive in its youth, but it clearly has the substance to last. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com
Burghound Score: 92-94	Like several wines in the range, there is a touch of herbal tea to the abundantly spiced nose of various dark berries where floral and spicy top notes appear. Once again there is excellent volume and punch to the dense, sappy and delicious larger-scaled flavors that deliver very fine length on the seductively textured and sneaky long finish. This is also quite good and a wine that should amply reward 12 to 15 years of cellar time but could also be approached after 7 to 8 years. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com

Vinous Score: 94-96	The 2019 Chapelle-Chambertin Vieilles Vignes Grand Cru has an attractive nose with blackberry, hints of melted tar and crushed violet. Wonderful focus here, more than the Charmes-Chambertin at the moment. The palate is medium-bodied with supple tannins, spicy and full of vim and vigour. There is a lot of coiled-up energy on the finish, the tension palpable long after the wine has departed. This oozes class. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com
Burghound Score: 92-94	A somber but agreeably fresh nose consists primarily of red and dark cherry, plum, violet and a whiff of underbrush. The super-sleek and gorgeously intense medium-bodied flavors exude a subtle minerality on the muscular, tightly coiled and sneaky long finish. I very much like the balance of fruit, acid and tannin components and this is a Griotte of finesse and refinement. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
Vinous Score: 93-95	The 2019 Griottes-Chambertin Vieilles Vignes Grand Cru, which comes from purchased fruit, has an intense nose that is very linear at the moment. Whereas this Grand Cru often displays blue fruit in its youth, this is black fruit and slightly more tertiary. The palate is well defined with crisp acidity on the entry. Silky in texture there are notes of blood orange and marmalade towards the finish with just a light tang of white pepper on the aftertaste. This is a bit of a charmer. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com
Burghound Score: 93-96	As is usually the case, this is spicier and a bit riper with its elegant, fresh and cool aromas of plum, black cherry, anise and soft sauvage whiffs. The mouthfeel is again super-sleek with superb delineation to the highly energetic big-bodied flavors that culminate in a mineral-driven, tautly muscular and bitter cherry pit-inflected finish that flashes hints of both youthful austerity and warmth. This should age effortlessly yet it's not so backward that it couldn't be approached after 10 years or so of bottle aging. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com

Burghound Score: 93-96	An exuberantly fresh if markedly restrained nose offers up a panoply of spice, earth and game elements that add breadth to the mostly dark berry fruit aromas. The tautly muscular and imposingly scaled flavors possess outstanding mid-palate density as well as evident minerality on the focused, youthfully austere and hugely persistent finale that is shaped by dense but fine-grained tannins. I very much like the balance and like the Mazoyères, the lovely sense of harmony. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
Vinous Score: 95-97	The 2019 Chambertin Grand Cru boasts enthralling precision and detail on the nose with exuberant black cherry and wild strawberry fruit, a fine sense of mineralité and focus. The palate is medium-bodied with supple tannins, very harmonious and expansive in the mouth with a very spicy finish thanks to a liberal sprinkling of cracked black pepper. What a lovely Chambertin! -Neal Martin, Vinous.com

Burghound Score: 89-91	A ripe nose features notes of various dark berries along with plenty of spice and a floral top note. This is a quality Chambolle villages and worth a look. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
Chambolle Musigny 1er Cru		90-92		$108
Burghound Score: 90-92	A deft though not imperceptible application of wood sets off slightly riper aromas of red and blue pinot fruit, violet and a hint of exotic tea. There is both more volume and richness to the delicious medium-bodied flavors that are shaped by very fine-grained tannins on the more firmly structured finale. This is very Chambollesque in character and should age well if desired. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
Chambolle Musigny 1er Cru 'Les Charmes'		91-93		Sold Out
Burghound Score: 91-93	Here too there is just enough wood present to comment upon framing the ripe, elegant and nicely layered aromas of plum, anise, sandalwood and an interesting whiff of dried tangerine peel. The succulent, round and seductively textured medium weight flavors exude a subtle minerality on the impressively persistent, balanced and solidly complex finale. While this could be enjoyed young, 8 to 10 years of bottle age should help to bring out even better depth. Worth considering. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
Chambolle Musigny 1er Cru 'Les Amoureuses'		92-94		On Allocation
Burghound Score: 92-94	This is the first wine to display any appreciable reduction and it's enough to blur the distinctions of the fruit and spice elements. Otherwise there is a finer texture to the concentrated and overtly mineral-inflected middle weight flavors that deliver excellent length on the slightly firmer finale. This lacy effort is a ballerina in a glass though one with sufficient structure and punch to warrant at least 10 years of cellaring and it may well reward more than that. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
Bonnes Mares		92-95		On Allocation
Burghound Score: 92-95	A slightly riper nose features notes of plum, various spice elements, earth and pretty floral nuances and in particular violet. The delicious and vibrant medium-bodied flavors possess better size, weight and power yet the mid-palate is relatively supple, all wrapped in a tautly muscular finish that tightens up considerably. This is a quality Bonnes Mares of grace and a certain refinement that should also age well over the mid- to perhaps even longer-term. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com

Burghound Score: 89-91	A markedly earthy nose combines notes of fresh red berries with those of underbrush and the sauvage. There is fine density to the vibrant, intense and attractively textured medium-bodied flavors that flash almost no austerity on the moderately firm and sneaky long finale. Nuits-Saint-Georges 'Les Poisets'		90-93		Releasing Soon
Burghound Score: 90-93	Here the 100% whole cluster vinification is quite evident with its floral, spice and herbal tea nuances to the ultra-elegant, pure and airy aromas of wafting essence of red berries that is almost delicate. There is equally good subtlety to the lilting flavors that are also supported by impressively fine-grained tannins on the youthfully austere, focused and chiseled finale. While this could use a bit more overall depth, this is one of the best Nuits villages you're likely to see in 2019; moreover, it's not especially Nuits in style. In a word, terrific. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com

Nuits-Saint-Georges 1er Cru 'Les Procès'		91-93		Releasing Soon
Burghound Score: 91-93	This too is overtly floral with its layered nose of more discreet spice nuances, earth and blend of red currant and cherry wisps. There is again excellent delineation to the stony and appealingly textured middle weight flavors that possess slightly better depth on the sneaky long finish shaped by a more evident tannic spine. Once again, this is outstanding and particularly so for what is generally, and fairly in my view, considered to be a good but not elite Nuits 1er. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com

Burghound Score: 91-93	An exuberantly fresh nose is comprised of subtly spiced aromas of red and dark currant, violet, lavender and discreet sandalwood wisps. There is impressive mid-palate density to the lavish and seductively textured flavors that coat the palate with dry extract on the caressing and once again sneaky long finish. Like several wines in the range, this too needs to develop more depth and my predicted range accords the benefit of the doubt. As an aside, I would make the same observation here that I made about the Procès in that this is a very fine example of what I consider to be a perfect example of a good but not particularly distinguished Vosne 1er. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com

Burghound Score: 93-95	This too is deftly wooded with an ultra-floral-suffused nose that speaks primarily of both red and dark berries, newly turned earth and a hint of humus. There is excellent volume to the denser and muscular yet relatively refined broad-shouldered flavors that culminate in a youthfully austere, compact and gorgeously long finish. The supporting tannins are dense but admirably fine-grained and while the overall impression is not as classy as that of the Grands Échézeaux, there is a bit more here. Échezeaux		92-94		$418
Burghound Score: 92-94	A discreet application of wood frames notes of soy, hoisin, star anise, black raspberry and plenty of floral nuances. There is impressive mid-palate density to the seductively textured larger-scaled flavors that coat the palate with sappy dry extract on the precise, very firm and serious finale where the impression of structure arrives just at the end. This markedly compact effort is clearly built-to-age and I would suggest not touching a bottle before 10 years of age. In a word, excellent. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com

Burghound Score: 87	Slightly earthier and spicier aromas feature both red and dark pinot fruit. The delicious, round and moderately forward middle weight flavors possess better depth and persistence and overall, this is really quite good and worth checking out for its level. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
Vinous Score: 84	Bottled just prior to harvest, the 2019 Bourgogne Rouge, which comes from five parcels, has a light, slightly ephemeral bouquet of airy strawberry scents. The palate is medium-bodied with fleshy red fruit and fine acidity. But it does need more substance and grip on the finish. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com
Bourgogne Hautes Cotes de Nuits		87	85	$28
Burghound Score: 87	A cooler and prettier if not more complex nose offers up notes of essence of red currant with subtle spice and floral wisps. The nicely detailed and silky textured flavors exude a refreshing salinity on the lingering finish that is just firm enough to warrant holding this for 2 to 4 years. This too is worth a look. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
Vinous Score: 85	The 2019 Bourgogne Hautes Côtes de Nuits has a little more intensity than the Bourgogne Rouge, offering light strawberry and crushed red cherry aromas. The palate is medium-bodied with slightly rustic tannins, but like the Bourgogne Rouge, I am simply seeking more fruité and substance on the finish -Neal Martin, Vinous.com
Burghound Score: 92-95	A softly spicy and markedly floral nose blends aromas of red currant, raspberry and newly turned earth. There is very good underlying energy and punch to the succulent and seductive yet powerful and concentrated broad-shouldered flavors that display a touch of warmth on the detailed, very firm, serious and austere finale. This is also potentially excellent, but this is definitely not a wine to engage in its early youth. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
Vinous Score: 91-93	The 2019 Clos de Vougeot Grand Cru does not deliver quite as much intensity and cohesion as the Echézeaux, offering leafy red berry fruit on the nose, which is quite muted at the moment and needs more presence. The palate has a little more chutzpah, displaying better grip than anticipated and a tightly wound, lightly spiced finish. It doesn't quite make a statement like some other wines from the clos this vintage. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com

Burghound Score: 91-94	Here too the aromatic profile is ripe but cool with its much spicier assortment of red raspberry, dark cherry, anise and floral nuances, all of which is trimmed in discreet wood. There is both excellent volume and punch to the rich though quite compact finale that, unusually for this wine, exhibits a touch of rusticity on the beautifully long and slightly warm finale. This is another wine in the Lamarche range that will need extended patience. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
Vinous Score: 92-94	The 2019 Echézeaux Grand Cru comes from parcels in Les Champs Traversins, Les Cruots and Clos Saint-Denis. It has a beautiful, quite ethereal bouquet of precise strawberry and morello cherry scents laced with crushed stone – just pure Pinoté. The palate is medium-bodied with satin-like tannins and fine acidity. This is not a deep or powerful Echézeaux, though it fans out with confidence on a black-peppering finish of modest length. This will drink well over the next 12–15 years. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com
Grands Échezeaux		93-95	93-95	On Allocation
Burghound Score: 93-95	This is actually quite similar aromatically to the Clos de Vougeot but with a bit less earth influence. The caressing big-bodied flavors possess excellent mid-palate density and almost painful intensity before concluding in a sappy, powerful and focused finale that is shaped by dense but attractively fine-grained tannins. This is at once serious yet elegant and a wine that should amply reward extended keeping; indeed it will require it. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
Vinous Score: 93-95	The 2019 Grands Echézeaux Grand Cru comes from Lamarche's 0.30-hectare parcel. It has a well-defined bouquet of pure red cherry and strawberry fruit, very elegant and ethereal in style, plus hints of sous-bois in the background. The palate is medium-bodied with very lithe tannins and more grip than the Clos Vougeot. Quite edgy and tensile, this fans out gently on the floral/rose petal finish. Very fine, although there is not a "Grands" gap between this and the Echézeaux this vintage. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com
La Grande Rue		93-95	92-94	$808
				$1640 / per magnum
Burghound Score: 93-95	An elegant mix of upper and medium register aromas centers mostly on the red side of the fruit spectrum along with hints of exotic tea, spice and pretty floral elements along with a hint of menthol. There is lovely detail and underlying tension to the moderately powerful medium-bodied flavors that possess plenty of punch on the dusty and youthfully austere finish that exhibits first-rate length. This beautifully balanced effort is a lovely combination of power and refinement and a wine that will also need extended aging though not as much as the Grands Ech. -Allen Meadows, Burghound.com
Vinous Score: 92-94	The 2019 La Grande Rue Grand Cru is aromatically tailored in a similar vein to the domaine's other Grand Crus: ethereal and floral in style with rose-petal-infused red fruit, the quintessential Pinoté, and hints of crushed rock developing with time. The palate is medium-bodied with lithe tannins, cohesive and poised, gaining weight with aeration toward a very pixelated finish and leaving a ferrous aftertaste. Very fine, very feminine. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com

Meursault 1er Cru 'Les Genevrières'			89-91	On Allocation
Burghound Score:
Vinous Score: 89-91	The 2019 Meursault Genevrières 1er Cru has quite a strong struck match element on the nose, though it seems to dissipate with continued aeration. The palate is well balanced, though I do find the reduction impeding onto the fruit profile so that it articulates more the winemaking technique than the terroir. There's a good Meursault here, but it is occluded by the winemaking practices at the moment. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com
Puligny Montrachet 1er Cru 'Clos De La Mouchère'			91-93	On Allocation
Burghound Score:
Vinous Score: 91-93	The 2019 Puligny-Montrachet Clos de la Mouchère 1er Cru sports just a slight reduction on the nose, but it still manages to convey energy and mineralité. Maybe it just lacks a bit of personality? The palate is well balanced with good grip and substance. A little spicier than other Puligny 2019s, there is a touch of white pepper and bitter orange peel that lends tension and complexity on the finish. Very fine. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com

Corton Charlemagne			91-93	On Allocation
Burghound Score:
Vinous Score: 91- 93	The 2019 Corton-Charlemagne Grand Cru, one of Boillot's strongest wines, has a delightful bouquet with well-defined scents of dried honey, hazelnut and crushed rock, quite Meursault-like in style. The palate is fresh on the entry with crisp acidity, not amazingly complex overall, yet I admire its tension and length, with quite a persistent spicy aftertaste. Very fine. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com

Volnay 1er Cru 'Les Chevrets'						91-93	$102
Burghound Score:
Vinous Score: 91-93	The 2019 Volnay Chevrets 1er Cru has a more backward nose compared to the Fremiets, darker fruit with a pastille-like quality. The palate is well balanced with sappy red berry fruit, fine acidity with that pastille leitmotif returning on the elegant and pure finish. This Volnay is refined and approachable, but I suspect it has the legs to give 15-20 years of drinking pleasure. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com
Volnay 1er Cru 'Les Fremiets'						91-93	$102
Burghound Score:
Vinous Score: 91-93	The 2019 Volnay Fremiets 1er Cru has a delightful bouquet with vivacious Morello cherry and blueberry aromas underpinned by fine mineralité. The palate is well balanced with quite a spicy entry, a fine bead of acidity, finely structured but showing a slightly feral finish. I can abide that - this is a fine and dare I say, "fun" Volnay from Boillot. -Neal Martin, Vinous.com
